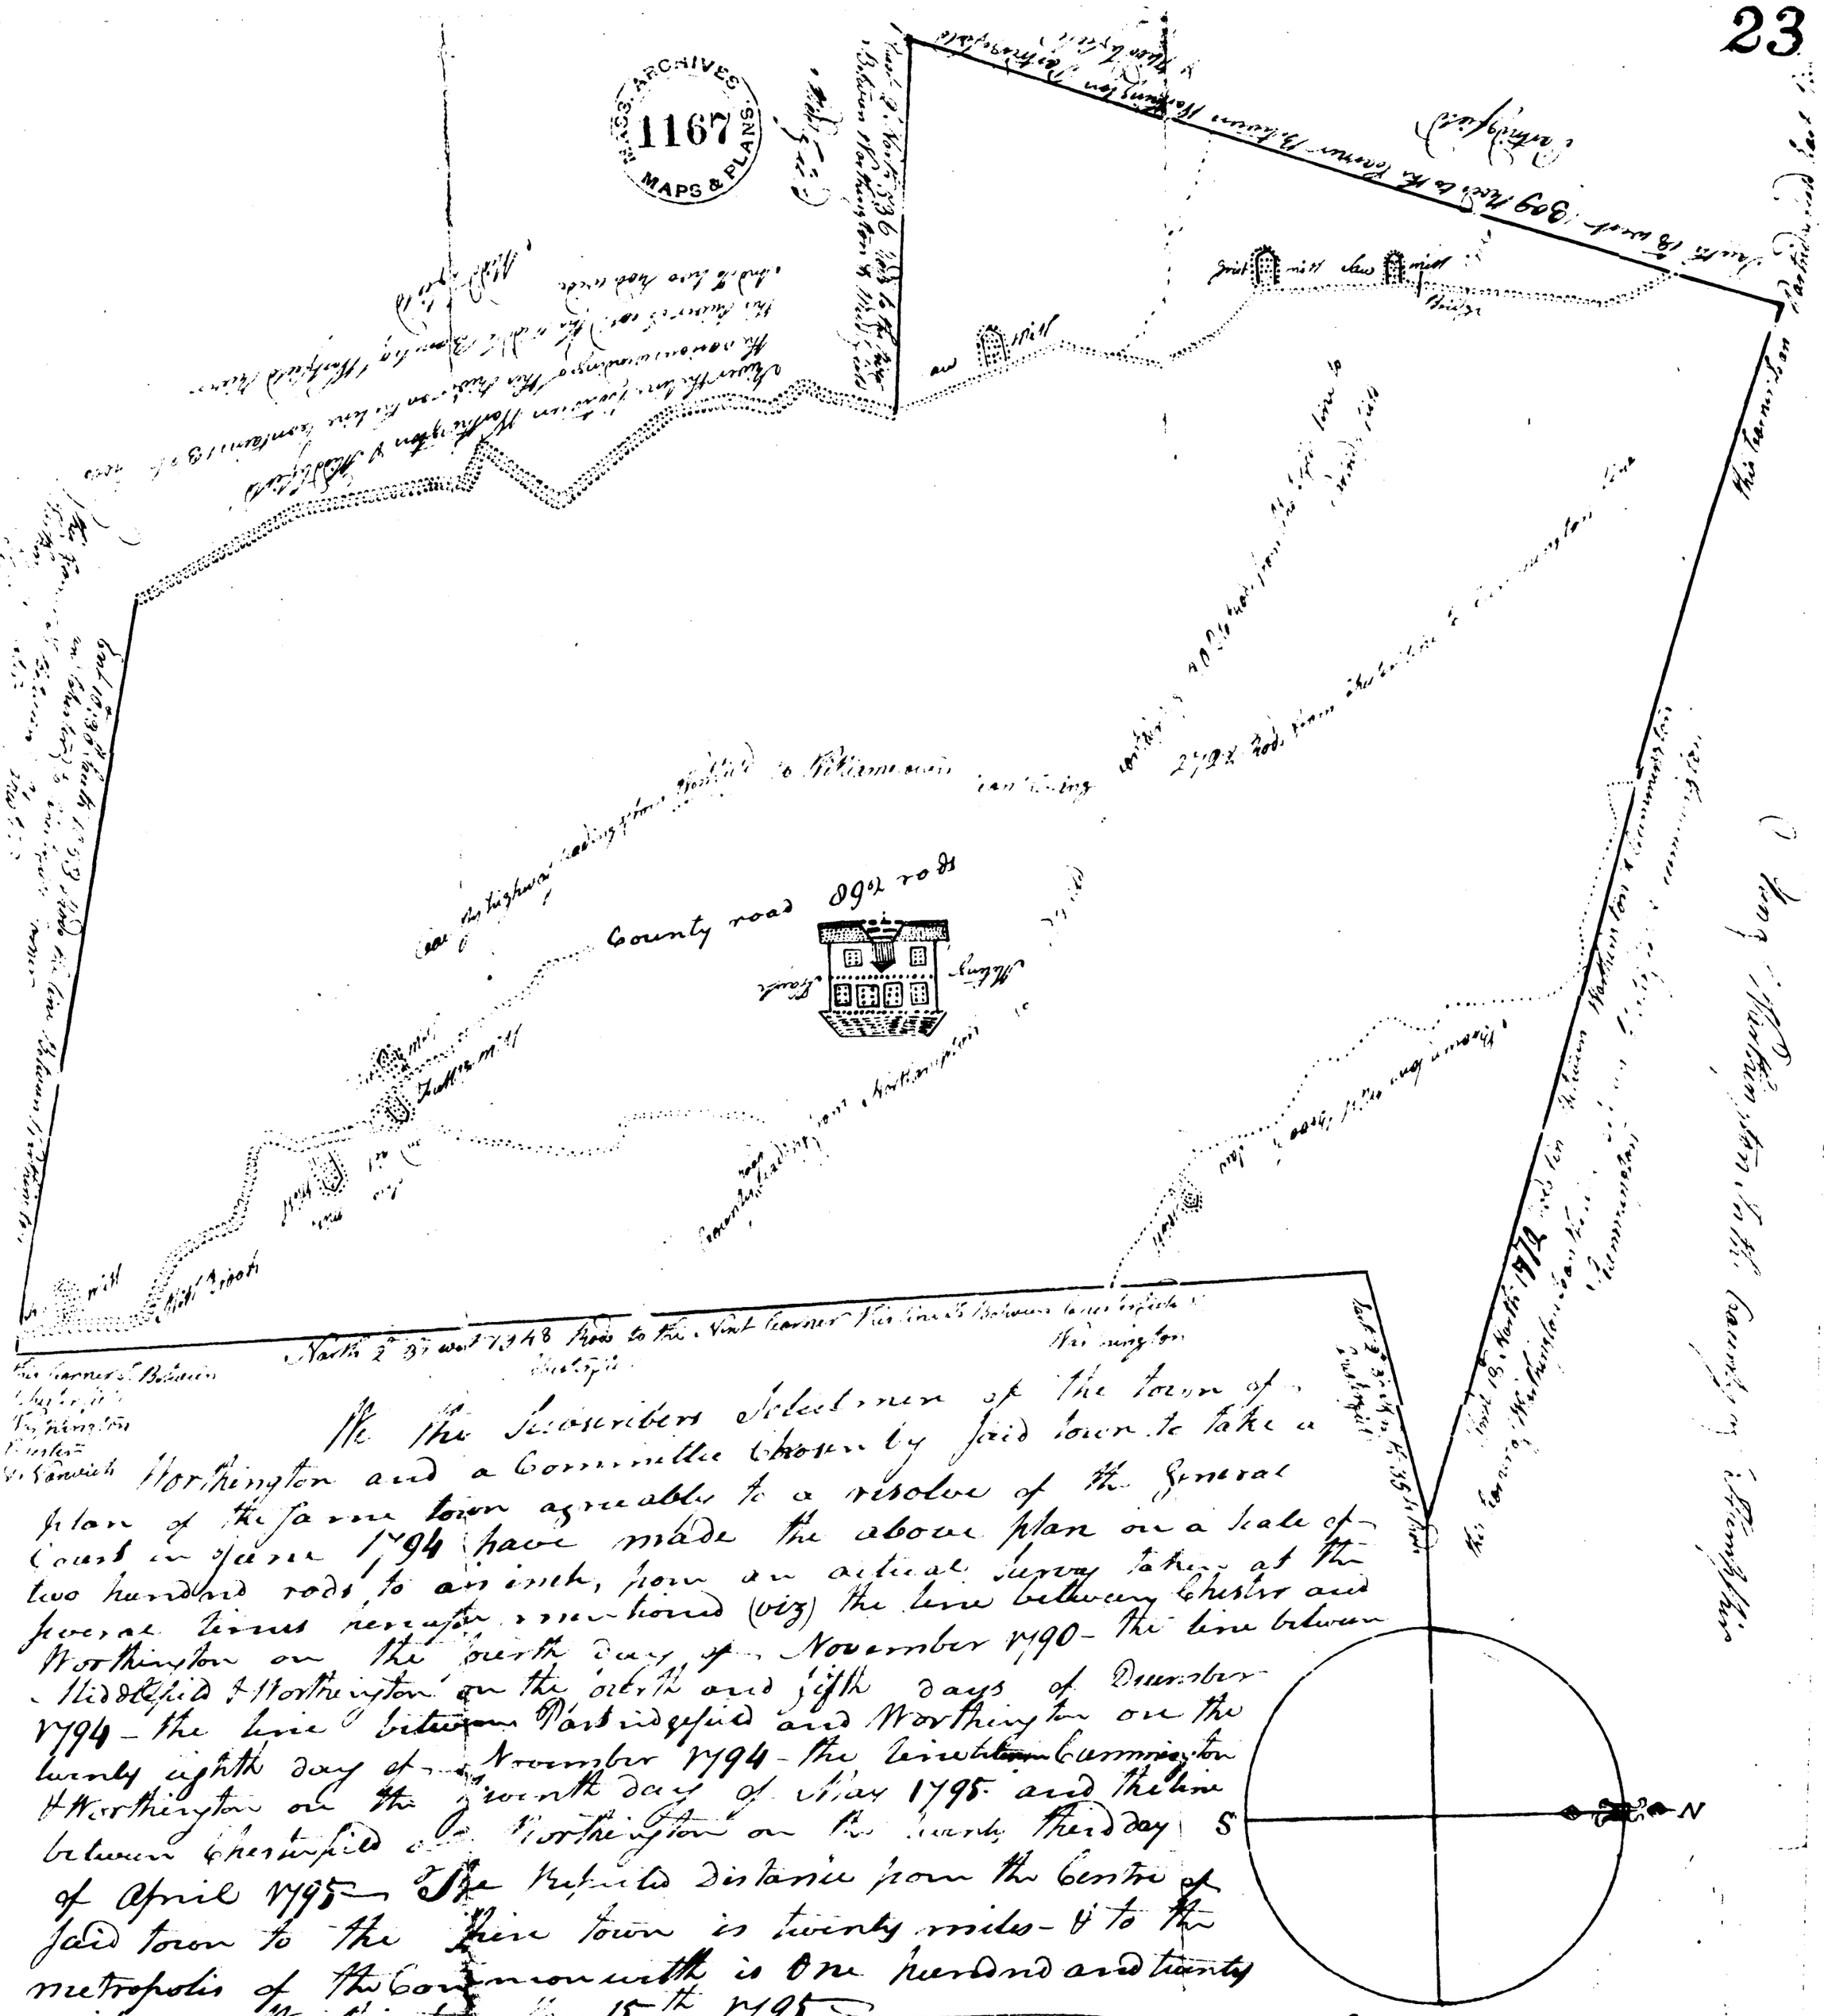
MASS. ARCHIVES
1167
MAPS & PLANS



We the Subscribers Selectmen of the town of Worthington and a Committee chosen by said town to take a plan of the same town agreeable to a resolve of the General Court in June 1794 have made the above plan on a scale of two hundred rods to an inch, from an actual survey taken at the several times hereafter mentioned (viz) the line between Chester and Worthington on the fourth day of November 1790 – the line between Middlefield & Worthington on the eighth and fifth days of December 1794 – the line between Partridgefield and Worthington on the twenty eighth day of November 1794 – the line between Cummington & Worthington on the fourth day of May 1795 and the line between Chesterfield & Worthington on the twenty third day of April 1795 – The reputed distance from the Centre of said town to the shire town is twenty miles – & to the metropolis of the Commonwealth is One hundred and twenty miles – Worthington May 15th 1795

Scale 200 Rods to an Inch

Jon.a Brewster
Math.w Warner } Selectmen
Jon.a Woodbridge } & Committee of Worthington