Jack and Dorothy Diamond lived on Buffington Hill Road (now the home of the Sharrons) and they then moved to Ringville with their family Wayne, John, Lee, Andy, Shirley and Judith. Judith married Robert Spiess in 1960 while he was on leave from the Navy. Having their wedding reception in the town hall as many young couples did and hired Barbara Pease to make their wedding cake. Marion Sanderson catered and Emmy Davis decorated the town hall (as he did for most functions). They lived on Williamsburg Hill with their two children, Shawn (Macutkiewicz) and Mark before they moved into a home built by Winston Donovan, a local builder on Huntington Road. They sold the adjoining lot to their son Mark and his wife Connie, where they raised their two children Amber and Nick..

Shawn raised her children Jillian and Zack Macutkiewicz and Michala Torres in Worthington and now lives in the home that once belonged to George and Liz Torrey .

Bob served on the Police Department for many years and as a constable and was a truck driver. After retiring they moved to Old North Road, spending their time with Bob's antique car and watching their grand children (and Great's too!). They Winter in Florida!
