

---

Mrs. Hattie Capen Is Dead, Aged 90

---

Worthington Resident Many Years Native of Peru

Worthington, Aug. 11—Mrs. Hattie Marie (Blackman) Capen, 90, died in her home tonight after a long illness. She was born in Peru on Dec. 10, 1859, daughter of George and Mary (Botton) Blackman and came to Worthington at the age of six, where she had lived ever since. She was married on Jan. 1, 1880, to Granville D. Capen, who died in 1924. She leaves one son, Arthur G. Capen of this town; one brother, Judson C. Blackman of Williamsburg; a nephew, Charles A. Granger of West Springfield, the son of her twin sister, and two other nephews. Friends may call at the home Sunday from 3 to 6. Funeral services will be in the Worthington Congregational Church Monday at 2, Rev. William P. Barton officiating. Burial will be in the Bridge St. Cemetery, Northampton. The bearers will be Merwin Packard, George Torrey, Harry Bates, and DeWitt Markham.